YWCA to take a 'Stand Against Racism'

The YWCA of Binghamton/Broome County is participating in the "Stand Against Racism," a program aimed at raising awareness of racism in communities. Participants in the Binghamton facility's gym at 80 Hawley St. will take a pledge to make a stand against racism at noon April 3.

The YWCA also is calling on local organizations, corporations, houses of worship and government agencies to become participating sites. Any organization or group of individuals can become a participating site by signing up through www.StandAgainstRacism.org. For local information, contact Carole Coppens at (607) 772-0340 ext. 227 or ccoppens@ywcaofbinghamton.org.
