YWCA National Stand Against Racism Day

April 29, 2011

On Friday, April 29th the local YWCA Greater Charleston will be hosting the Stand Against Racism at 106 Coming Street from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. The following are some of the organizations that have partnered with us: ACLU of South Carolina, Calvary Episcopal Church, Carolina Youth Development Center, Charleston Branch of NAACP, Charleston School of Law, City of Charleston Mayor's Office for Children, Youth and Families, Coastal Community Foundation, College of Charleston Office of Institutional Diversity, Charleston Jewish Federation, League of Women Voters, Porter-Gaud School, SC Caribbean Culture and Heritage, The Black Student Union College of Charleston, Trident Literacy Association, WO'SE Dance Theatre, Charity Missionary Baptist Church, Chinese Association of Greater Charleston, Parents Anonymous of South Carolina, The Citadel's African American Society, Planned Parenthood and WINGS for Kids.

The event will kick-off with WO'SE of Charleston African Dancers, Poetry reading by Harold Singletary, and the The Lucas Sisters will lend their powerful voices. Speakers will include Sara Nicholson, Planned Parenthood, Dr. Ida Johnson-Spruill, Medical University of South Carolina, and Celina Anthony, Circulo Hispanoamericano de Charleston.

A panel discussion will take place at 1:00 pm with Rev. Nelson B. Rivers, III, National Office of NAACP, Min. Jerrod Frazier, Candidate for Juries Doctorate 2014, Anne Mjaatvedt, Employment Attorney, Ron Kaz, Amnesty International USA, and Maria Cordova, DMD, YWCA Board President.
